

National Investigation Agency
Ministry of Home Affairs, Govt. of India

PRESS RELEASE

PRADIP BRAHMA@PWLER OF NDFB(S) CONVICTED FOR LIFE IN NIA CASE.

On 01.05.2014 at about 11.30 P.M., a group of Bodo militants equipped with sophisticated weapons entered the house of Batchu Seikh in village Balapara under Gossaigaon PS, District Kokrajhar, Assam and they resorted to indiscriminate firing and killing of seven persons and injuring two. Majority of those killed/injured were women and children.

This was a very serious incident of mass killing by the militants and looking at the seriousness of the matter, the Ministry of Home Affairs, Govt. of India, transferred the investigation of the case to NIA. In compliance of the MHA order, the case FIR No. 155 of 2014 of Gossaigaon PS was taken up by the NIA for investigation. During the course of investigation, the National Investigation Agency arrested accused Pradip Brahma@Pwler S/o Late Bonendra Nath Brahma and later filed a chargesheet against him in the Special NIA Court, Guwahati.

★ After completion of trial, Hon'ble Special NIA Court, has convicted Pradip Brahma@Pwler S/o Late Bonendra Nath Brahma R/o. vill Besorkona, PS Bagribari, Distt Kokrajhar, Assam and sentenced him for life imprisonment.
